Join us to Share the Dignity

Woolworths is proud to partner with Share the Dignity to address period poverty, and we're donating 5c from every period care product sold in August to help support Share the Dignity's community work.

Since our partnership began in 2019, we have donated more than $2 million to provide practical support such as free period care products wherever they are needed all around Australia.

You can make a difference. This month donations of period care and continence products are welcome in store. Look out for our pink collection boxes, all donations will be redistributed to women's refuges, community centres and schools.
