

Australians stand by communities when they need help

We'd like to thank the thousands of Australians who continue to stand by flood-affected communities. In the face of adversity, it's a heart-warming reflection of the nation's kindness and generosity.

In the past weeks, Australians from around the country have donated over $850,000 to The Salvation Army 2022 Flood Appeal through their local Woolworths stores. In conjunction with the appeal, S.T.A.N.D has helped The Salvation Army meet the immediate essential needs of those affected. This generosity will assist those devastated and displaced by the floods, as their communities now recover and rebuild.
