We're playing our part to grow even greener by reducing plastic waste. That's why Woolworths has removed all single-use plastic picnicware (like cutlery, cups, plates and bowls) from our shelves nationwide, saving approximately 2,100 tonnes of plastic from going to landfill every year. Instead, you'll now find more environmentally friendly alternatives.

As part of our commitment to growing greener, we've now made it easier to recycle household batteries.

E-waste is a serious problem, but with our partners Ecobatt and Mobile Muster, we're helping to reduce the amount of harmful chemicals that end up in landfill.

You'll find recycling units in Woolworths supermarkets across Australia. It's just another way we're helping create a greener future.
